Students at the age of 18 always have to face a difficult decision to make. Some want to go on with their study at college or university; others prefer to start work immediately. Many school leavers are eager to go to work in order to make money to live independently and help their parents. They always do their best to overcome any obstacles they may encounter. Unfortunately, owing to the poor and biased guidance from their parents and teachers, most boys and girls are ill-prepared for unemployment. Therefore, they often feel worried and build up all sort of fearsome prospects in their mind as the time to start work gets nearer. It is the duty of the school and family to prepare these young people for their future jobs.

22. What is the main idea of the passage?
A. Learning at university B. Getting to know about new jobs
C. Starting to work after leaving school D. Making an important decision at 18

23. Why do some young people want to find a job after they leave school?
A. They are badly in need of money B. They want to lead an independent life
C. Their parents do not help them D. They want to get rid of schooling

24. What does the word "ill-prepared" mean in the passage?
A. very prepared B. not ready C. confused D. overconfident

25. The word "They" in the sentence "They always do their best to overcome any obstacles they may encounter" refers to:
A. Parents B. Teachers C. School leavers D. Employers

26. Which of the following is NOT mentioned in the passage?
A. Students need to make decisions about work or study.
B. Parents and teachers help students prepare for their future jobs.
C. Many students want to work to help their parents.
D. Students often feel nervous when it's time to start working.
